$300 Digital Gift Card

An A$300 Digital Gift Card lets you make a larger gift without selecting a menu for someone else. If you are organising one present from several people, you can choose this single denomination and add a message from the group. The listing is for one digital card value, with quantity chosen separately on the ordering page.

Gift card value: A$300.00. Listed purchase price: A$300.00 , checked 19 October 2026. Review the selected quantity and final total before paying.

Choose the A$300 digital gift card

Add the recipient details

The ordering page offers “I want to send this as a gift” with fields for the recipient’s email, an optional name and an optional message of up to 200 characters. It also includes a “Send on” date field.

Open the gift-card ordering page and select the gifting option if sending to someone else.

Check the recipient’s email carefully, then add any name, message and date details.

Review the denomination, quantity and recipient details before completing checkout.

If arrival on a particular date is important, confirm the digital delivery arrangements with our team before purchase.

Make the gift useful

Keep the card value separate from the recipient’s eventual shopping list. An A$300 gift is not a promise of a particular program, number of meals or delivery entitlement. They can explore current meals and bundles, then confirm the terms relevant to the purchase they want to make.

Questions before you buy

Can I add a message from several people?

The ordering form has an optional message field with a 200-character limit. You can use that space for a short greeting and names; review the message before adding the card to your order.
