$500 Digital Gift Card

Choose the A$500 digital gift card

Add the recipient details

The ordering page offers “I want to send this as a gift” with fields for the recipient’s email, an optional name and an optional message of up to 200 characters. It also includes a “Send on” date field.

Open the gift-card ordering page and select the gifting option if sending to someone else.

Check the recipient’s email carefully, then add any name, message and date details.

Review the denomination, quantity and recipient details before completing checkout.

If arrival on a particular date is important, confirm the digital delivery arrangements with our team before purchase.

Make the gift useful

For a gift of this size, confirm any important redemption or validity details before paying. An A$500 denomination does not establish a number of weeks of food, a subscription, or eligibility for a particular promotion. Review the recipient’s delivery area and intended use rather than treating the value as a program booking.
